as all the 200 women (Godhara Riot Victims) residing in the Shelter Home had been empowered in vocational skills and are self employed now.

(iv) One Shelter Home run by AWAG (Ahmadabad Women's Action Group) was discontinued as all the women living in the Home had been reunited with their families.

(v) One Shelter Home run by CEDA Trust, Dindigul, Tamil Nadu was discontinued as all the destitute women in the home had been empowered by giving training in vocational skills and income generation activities. They become self-dependent and confidant and did not feel the need of residing in Shelter Home.

(c) The Swadhar Scheme is implemented through State Government and NGO. When the NGO has expressed inability to run the project, it is the responsibility of the State Government to take care of women in difficult circumstances.

(d) The closed shelter Homes were running in hired accommodation by implementing NGOs. There is no proposal for construction of Shelter Home.
